The following is a synopsis of the information provided by Kristin Adam to the NTSB IIC, via telephone.

- During the egression from the inverted helicopter, it was a very chaotic situation.
- Kristin smelled fuel emitting from the helicopter during the egression.
- Kristin's jacket became heavily soiled during the egression.
- Kristin was unsure if her jacket became heavily soiled because of the snow on the ground, or from the leaking fuel from the helicopter, or from both the snow and the fuel.
