Narrative: Mrs. Stanley and her husband responded to the accident in their neighbor on July 18, 2018. She was interviewed in person at the house of Mrs. Shoppmeyer. This is a summary of her statements.

She and her husband own Denali Flying Service. On the day of the accident, when they heard the crash, her husband, Barry, went to get a fire extinguisher and she went out to the street to see what happened. She saw the passenger with her son coming away from the wreckage in the wooded lot next to their property. Within 3 minutes the airplane was completely engulfed in flames. The passenger screamed and then a truck pulled up on the road. Barry helped the passenger out to the road. The airplane was nose down in a vertical attitude on fire. The passenger kept saying over and over "I'm so sorry, I'm so sorry, I'm so sorry". They helped her until the fire department came, and then helped her and her family the week following the accident.
