Contact: Elsie Cheemuk

Elsie Cheemuk was on the Bering Air flight on February 6, 2025 that departed from Nome, Alaska at 830 in the morning en route to St. Michael, Alaska.

Elsie said that it was too white to see anything during the flight so she closed her eyes and tried to sleep.

She said the weather in St. Michael was okay but she couldn't see very far, she guessed the visibility to be 3-4 miles. She does not recall seeing any snow or ice.

She did not recall seeing any ice on the airplane when she departed.

She did say that 2 to 3 hours after arriving in St. Michael the weather deteriorated.
