

Dalton Airport (3DA)

This is an aerial satellite view of a suburban and semi-rural area in Dalton, Georgia. The image shows a mix of residential neighborhoods with houses and trees, commercial areas with large buildings and parking lots, and open fields. A major road runs horizontally across the top. A red pin marks the Dalton Airport (3DA) on the left. Two yellow pins mark the locations of video sources and an accident. A golf course is visible in the center, and a large body of water is on the right.
