

On June 29, 2013, at 1530 local time, a Cessna 185D seaplane, serial number 185-0863, Finnish registration OH-CEG, owned by Werner Air Oy, was destroyed after impacting the surface of Lake Sulasvesi, Vehmersalmi, Finland. The pilot and two passengers were fatally injured. A fourth occupant escaped from the sunken wreckage and sustained minor injuries.

This investigation is under the jurisdiction of the government of Finland. Any further information regarding the investigation can be obtained from:

Safety Investigation Authority, Finland
Ratapihantie 9
FI-00520 Helsinki
Finland

Telephone: (358) 2951 60001

E-mail: turvallisuustutkinta@om.fi