Timothy N. Sorensen
Aviation Accident Investigator
Central Region

Date: May 3, 2018
Person Contacted: Callie Clark
NTSB Accident Number: CEN18FA140 – Friona, Texas

Narrative:

Ms. Clark is the flight instructor's sister. She stated that the airplane flew over a couple of times about 2045. She was at her parent's house which was located about 2 or 3 miles north of the flight instructor's house. She noted that the airplane was low, but that nothing seemed unusual. Both the flight instructor and the student pilot waved.

Ms. Clark recalled the weather that evening as "very nice." It was clear and "not windy."
