

RECORD OF CONVERSATION

Jennifer Rodi
Air Safety Investigator
Central Region

Person Contacted: Carrie Kensinger – Pilots Wife
NTSB Accident Number: CEN18FA400

Narrative:

During the conversation, Mrs. Kensinger stated the following:

- The pilot worked with several dog rescue organizations. He intended on going to pick up a rescue dog and return that same day
- They initially had plans later that evening for a dinner date and a movie. The pilot sent her a text message later to indicate he would not return in time for the movie, just dinner
- The pilot was an anesthesiologist and had returned home that morning after a 24-hour shift at the hospital
- He remarked to her that he had slept that night
- She stated that there were no health issues, medications, or sleep apnea that she was aware of
- The pilot was not under any personal or work-related stress and was not otherwise distracted with any issues
- The pilot usually kept his logbook with him in the airplane
- She had flown with him in the past – he loved flying and found it calming
- She stated that it was common for him to use the autopilot while flying
