

AUTOPSY INFORMATION

Jason Aguilera
Air Safety Investigator
Central Region

The deceased pilot's remains were processed through the State Crime Laboratory in Little Rock, Arkansas. The Medical Examiner Division stated the cause of death to be "multiple injuries" and ruled the manner of death an accident.

The autopsy also noted that there was evidence of disease to include an enlarged heart with scarring of the kidneys, due to the effects of hypertension. There was no evidence of pulmonary embolism or coronary artery thrombosis.