

Narrative

On the 28th day December 2019, the Lafayette Police Department patrol Division responded to the 400 block of Feu Follet in reference to an airplane crash. Upon arrival, Sgt [REDACTED] and Officer [REDACTED] were the first into the field where the remains of the plane came to rest. Fire personnel were on scene and extinguishing flames on a vehicle that was flipped in the parking lot of the Post office. Sgt. [REDACTED] observed mass damage to the parking lot of the United States Post Office as well as two vehicles that were in the lot, one of which was previously mentioned.

Sgt [REDACTED] pulled his vehicle into the 400 block of Feu Follet and entered the Field where the remains of the plane were which was filled with patrons who were attempting to render assistance. At that point Sgt [REDACTED] Determined that one subject from the plane was close to his proximity and that he was seated in the grass. Sgt [REDACTED] made contact with him and he was identified as [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] was observed to be bleeding profusely from the head and was observed to have extensive burns throughout his body. Sgt [REDACTED] quickly began to obtain information from him and it was determined that the plane was occupied by 6 passengers. [REDACTED] stated that the plane belonged to [REDACTED] and that the pilot was [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] indicated that they had just departed from the Lafayette Regional Airport and that their destination was the LSU/OU game in Atlanta Georgia. [REDACTED] stated that all he remembered was that the plane went straight up and then straight down and he did not know what happened. Officer [REDACTED] arrived and rendered assistance to [REDACTED] until the arrival of Acadian Ambulance Service personnel.
