

Mike Marvin telephone interview on January 27, 2021.

Mr. Marvin was giving Mr. Compo instrument flight instruction.

I asked him if he had been giving Mr. Compo Flight Instruction.

Mr. Marvin stated: He Flown with him 12 times for 22-hours.

I asked him about Mr. Compo having over 100 hours actual instrument logged in his pilot log book.

Mr. Marvin stated: He had asked him (Mr. Compo) about that and he said: (Mr. Compo) he had been flying for 20-years.

I asked Mr. Marvin if he had given him (Mr. Compo) a BFR (biannual flight review).

Mr. Marvin said: No.

I then asked if he knew who did.

Mr. Marvin said: No.

I asked how he (Mr. Compo) handled the plane.

Mr. Marvin stated: He had shot the approach (Y47) with (Mr. Compo) and he "Missed it by 2 miles".

Mr. Marvin also stated that "He needed four or five more sessions before I would sign him off" for his check ride.
