I TAXIED DOWN TO the end of Runway 13 with a significant cross wind over the trees lining the south side of the Runway. After Run UP I went to full power and after breaking ground was blown over the corn on the N side of the Runway I am not sure but I seemed to have too little power to climb out. Running out of space with trees nearing the plane stalled into the corn. There were many ground hog burrows in the field, and while wings were level upon my attempted landing my left main gear broke off causing the plane to spin as it came to rest damaging the left wing. I was not injured.
