

Michael J. Hodges
Investigator-In-Charge
Office of Aviation Safety, Central Regional Office

Date: March 2, 2023

Subject: CEN22FA197 Medical and Pathological Information

An autopsy of the pilot was performed by the Adams County Coroner in Brighton, Colorado. The cause of death was blunt force injuries of the head, and the manner of death was an accident. There was no soot present in the main stem bronchi and their major branches.

Nothing Follows