Good evening Mike,

My apologies for the late email. The flight was a personal flight. The pilot was going to visit her parents. It was not a training flight nor was the pilot on a training syllabus..

Hi sir,

I have a quick question please about the accident please.

Was the accident flight, a 14 CFR Part 91 instructional flight? As in the pilot was flying under a training syllabus?

The NTSB Form 6120.1 states that it was a 14 CFR Part 91 personal flight.

I just want to make sure I understand it all correctly. Thank you.

Mike
