Date of 03/24/2025. I was scheduled a solo XC at 0800. That morning when I checked the ATIS at KOCH, it was reporting 4kt at 040. When I arrived at HCH Aviation Airport, I searched for an instructor to ramp me out, but could not find one in the building or in the hanger. Because of this, I proceeded to text my instructor (Casey) at 07:38. My message read, "There's no one in the office to ramp me out, but I am pre-flighting N439FJ." I preflighted the plane and refueled. After refueling the aircraft, I texted my instructor (Casey) again at 08:25. My message read, "I am about to take off. Koch to KTRL". My instructor (Casey) responded with, "Let me know when you're back." at 09:06. I then proceeded to finish my run up checklist and departed from KOCH. I flew to KTRL, did one touch and go and routed my way back to KOCH. 18nm out from KOCH I started my descent from 5500ft to 1400ft. When I listened to the ATIS report, it was reporting 080 11kts. I attempted 2 landings at runway 36, but did not feel stable coming in for my landings due to the strong crosswinds. So I called for 2 go around. On my 3rd attempt, I listened to the ATIS and it was reporting 080 11-G17kts. With the last known wind report, the winds were right up against the plane's xwind limitation. I extended my downwind so I could have more time to prepare for a more stable landing. When I was coming in for my landing I was crabbing into the winds. Upon the 3rd attempt on my approach towards the runway, I finally felt stable and that gave me some confidence to try and land. As I attempted my flare, I felt the mains touchdown and a gust of wind from my right pushed me off centerline. The gusts were strong enough to lift the plane given the lightness of the aircraft. I was not able to safely maneuver the plane to keep it on centerline. I also did not feel comfortable proceeding with the go around due to being in such close proximity with the ground and the unstable winds on final. Because of the winds, the plane was pushed towards the grass and away from the runway. My thought process was first to slam on my right rudder, but I was afraid of flipping the aircraft. So I then tried to apply the brakes before entering the grass. Once I was off the runway and onto the grass, I started to pulse my brakes instead of slamming the brakes to prevent the nose from diving. But the front main gave out in the grass and the nose drove into the ground. I proceeded to shut everything off in the aircraft and got out and called an instructor at HCH Aviation. I called Jason Vance (an instructor at HCH Aviation) who did not answer. I later found out that he was second in line for final, so he saw what had happened. Jason told me that he did a go around and radioed in the incident. Once I saw a black SUV driving my way, I waved them down. A man came out and asked if I was okay. Kristen (Administrator for HCH Aviation) showed up afterwards, followed by Jason. Jason proceeded to take me back to HCH building on a golf cart and took me into his office so I could give my written statement. After writing my statement, I gave a verbal account of the incident to John Hughes (Administrator for HCH Aviation), while he took handwritten notes during my testimony. I was in the office giving my statements for approximately 2 hours. Afterwards, I was instructed to go take a drug test at a local urgent care by the name of Urgent Doc. A sample of urine was taken. I tested negative and the nurse let me know I was clear and free to go and she would notify HCH Aviation of my results. I left Urgent Doc around 1400.
