

Docket No. SA-542

Exhibit No. 3-B

NATIONAL TRANSPORTATION SAFETY BOARD

Washington, D.C.

Air Traffic Control Attachment 1 Graphics

(4 Pages)

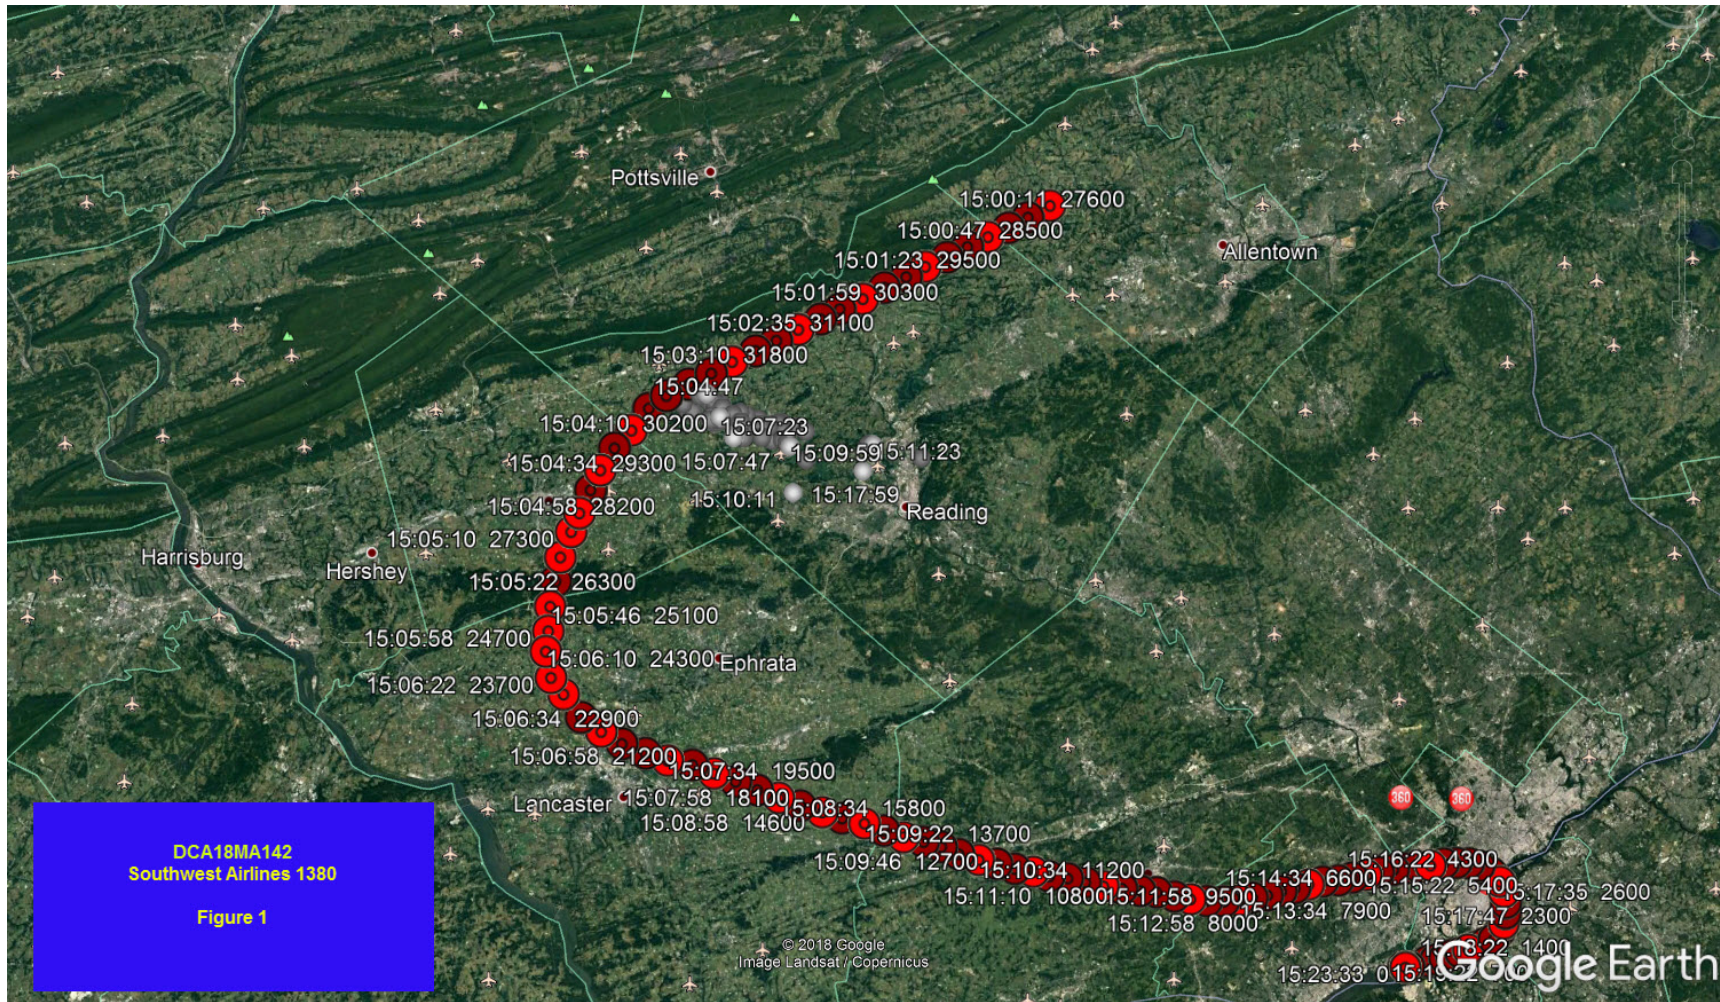

Figure 1 – FAA radar data showing the track of the accident aircraft. At 1103:3, the aircraft was at 32,500 feet.

Figure 2 - Expanded view of the aircraft flight track indicating altitudes. The silver targets depict the primary targets moving away from the aircraft flight track.

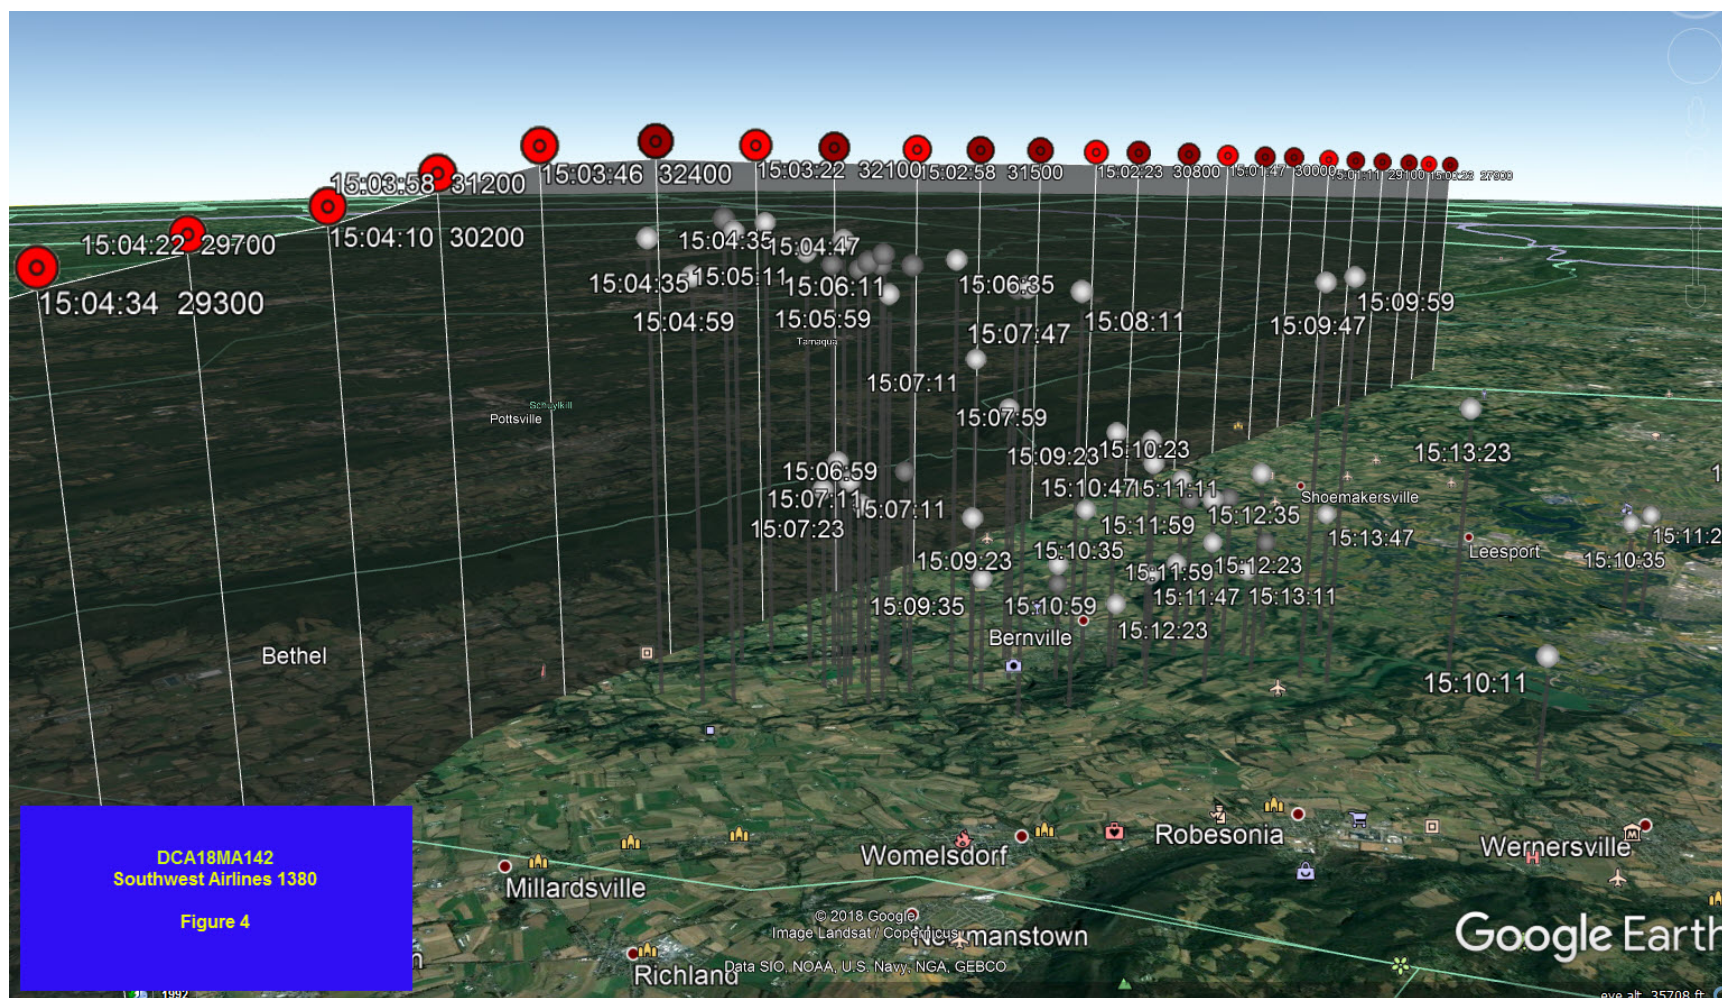

Figure 4 - Radar data showing the primary targets falling away from the flight track of the aircraft.