

On 8-13-15 I was with a friend while he was spraying Soybeans. The plane had landed and completely on the ground. I noticed that no smoke were coming from the tires like I had seen on the other landings. The plane continued forward when smoke started coming from the tires. The nose of the plane started downward. The nose struck the pavement and the plane flipped over on the roof. end of statement

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]