

The pilot departed the Suwannee River to the north before making a 180° left turn to fly southbound over the river. The red arrow shows the direction of takeoff, the yellow arrow shows the direction of travel over the river. The yellow pin, N696FT, indicates where the airplane came to rest underneath the powerlines.

Figure 1 Google Earth view of witness locations, flight path, and wreckage location.