

NTSB RECORD OF CONVERSATION

Adam Gerhardt
Air Safety Investigator
Eastern Region, Office of Aviation Safety (ERA)
National Transportation Safety Board

Date: 9/27/2019

Person Contacted: Dr. Tejvir Khurana (Brother of Pilot)

NTSB Accident Number: ERA19FA240

Narrative:

The following is a summary of telephone conversation that occurred with the individual named above:

- He reported that he was on vacation in Idaho the week the accident occurred.
- He did speak with the accident pilot (Dr. Jasvir Khurana, brother) the night before the accident. He believed that he sounded “completely fine, he did not sound stressed.” They discussed the weather and his intention to stop after the first day of flying in St. Louis, MO.
- He reported that Dr. Jasvir Khurana was very conservative with his decision making, and it was common for him to get two or three weather briefings before flight.
He reported that Dr. Jasvir Khurana had a very flexible work schedule, and to his knowledge he was not scheduled for any surgeries the days preceding the accident.
- He reported that he was not aware of any medical issues the pilot may have been dealing with. He believed he exercised regularly.
- He stated that if Dr. Jasvir Khurana wanted to fly his own son home from college, he would not think twice about letting him do so.
- He stated that the pilot’s spouse did not have pilot experience and would often fall asleep during flights.
