It was a beautiful day sunny with no wind.

I was weeding, he came over smooth as could be. He hit the water bounced, then nosed over into the water. The plane stoped upside down.

July 16, 2019 At Approx. 3:45 PM.

It was a clear and calm day.

I looked out saw the plane upside down in the water. Noticed him swimming with a life vest. Grabbed a kayak and paddled out to him. He grabbed strap and I pulled him to shore.
