Hi Paul,

Foreflight had nothing, but Leidos said they found something via Garmin. I'm awaiting on the data package from them; will forward when I see it.

Thanks!
Adam

Hello Adam,

No flight plans were filed through ForeFlight for N899ZZ on or around 3/23/2020.

Some pilots have N899ZZ listed as an aircraft in their accounts but I checked all of them and none of them showed any recent routes including KOGB, KLRO, or KMRH.

If you find an email address for [REDACTED] we can certainly search for that, but at this point it appears very unlikely that the pilot was using ForeFlight.

Best regards,
