The following is an excerpt of an e-mail received from Mr. Hagan at 1127 EDT on June 14, 2023, in response to my inquiry about preflight fueling records. The e-mail was sent from [REDACTED].

Tanks have not been even opened to my knowledge! When it crashed the gas lines broke and I assume the gas ran out of the plane then! I attached crash site pics also! This was minutes after and you can see blue fuel on one of the wings.
