I was driving Eastbound on Int. 40 and saw a plane flying West to East at low altitude over a crossing of the interstate. Next I saw an explosion but didn't actually see the plane crash. I then pulled over to see if I could see any survivors in and around the perimeter of the plane. I didn't see any around the plane on the ground but heard screaming from inside. It was fully engulfed in flames and too hot to rescue them.

Driving 140 East into City. Passing exit 201 when I saw something dark from the sky it was coming across the 140 west lanes and on impact with grass burst into flames. I got to shoulder and called 911 and ran out of my car to scene to see anything or anyone needed help. Ran into another person who pulled over we ran up to plane. I saw an officer and started waving at him. we kept circling plane I thought I heard something but not sure. the metal was bursting due to the hot temperature? Was unable to get very close.

Plane looked very shaky and swaying from side to side looked like trying to land but was unable to control.
