State The Following:

I am speaking with Trooper McCloud making this statement at my own will. On today's date I was the left rear passenger on my friend, James Whalens plane. We took off at approximately 8:30 AM Robertson Airport in Plainville Ct. We had been in the air for less than an hour. James was practicing landings. One landing, the pilot and co-pilot had a conversation about procedure and we continued on. On James last attempt, James attempted a go around and lost control. The co-pilot attempted to take over control but it was too late. The entire time, Nick had been giving James instruction.
