DIGEST
I called flight instructor Joey Corrado who signed off a cross country flight with Alex Tsunsi. Mr. Corrado at the time of this call was on a boat with near the aircraft. He informed me seatow had been there and had divers that were possibly going to retrieve items. I told him to not take anything out of the aircraft. He not to.
I asked Joey about the day and the events that led up to the crash. He said that him and Mr.Tsunsi did a preflight, had full fuel, had calculated how much fuel was needed and flew what later Alex would fly solo as his first solo cross country. Their flight was a total of 1.8 hours and Mr.Corrado said they did not get fuel again once they go to the KSPG. He said the student was flying a long and the engine just stopped. He didn't know why but that was all he knew about what happened. I asked Mr.Corrado if he was familiar with the PBR and Privacy Act and he was. I have sent a email copy of both of these documents for his review.
Mr.Corrado was asked to send me a copy of his ID,medical,pilot certifications and log of records 61.189 (b) .
Mr.Corrado informed me he had just lost his home last week to Hurricane Helene.
Mr.Corrado has been very helpful and compliant.
