

NTSB RECORD OF CONVERSATION

Kathryn Benhoff
Air Safety Investigator
General Aviation Accident Investigation Division, AS-20

Date: August 1, 2017
Person Contacted: Ashley Hurt (student pilot)
NTSB Accident Number: GAA17CA455

The following is a summary of the telephone conversation:

The student pilot reported that, during landing, the wheels touched the ground and the airplane bounced. Upon the second touchdown, the airplane landed on the nose landing gear and it collapsed.

The student pilot reported that there were no preimpact mechanical failures or malfunctions with the airplane that would have precluded normal operation.
