August 4th 2018

Aircraft – N1160D 1950 Cessna 140A

Pilot - James Lincoln Davis License # [REDACTED]

Key Points – Weight 254lbs, No Illness, No Medications other than the ones stated for my medical (High Blood Pressure), Low Stress (I had a good nights sleep and had taken the day off from work on Friday), No Alcohol (Last drink was over a week ago and was 1 glass of wine), No Fatigue (was well rested with my usual 7 hours of sleep, went to bed at 10pm and awoke at 5am), No Emotional challenges

My flight goals – 3 Full Stop Take Off/Landings solo in N1160D

Weather @ KWAY prior to takeoff 290 6kts 10SM Broken 1300 & 1900

Key Points - VFR Conditions & 3kts Right Side Cross Wind with 5kts Headwind

Pre-Flight

Everything was verified per checklist and no anomalies

Key Points – Both tanks had $\frac{3}{4}$ fuel on left and right & 4 $\frac{1}{2}$ Quarts Oil

Run Up

Everything was verified per checklist and no anomalies

Flight

I had one successful takeoff & landing to a full stop on Runway 26

Then proceeded to have another takeoff from Runway 26, but on this landing opted for a Go Around because I was getting blown to the left side of the runway as I was a little past the numbers starting my flare. The go around was successful and I turned right cross wind for Runway 26 and continued in the pattern.

As I came around for the next landing on Runway 26 I checked the wind sock on approach and it was swinging around but was mostly indicating towards the runway 26. Upon touching down I ballooned the plane and held my attitude for it to return to the runway, when I came down I was left of center trying to get it centered. But I was quickly in the left side grass faced with a Cessna on the taxiway. I was unable to get it to the runway and made a decision to brake the plane hard to avoid a potential collision. By braking I caused the plane to flip over to the point where the tail was facing the opposite way and the wheels in the air.

I was taken to the hospital to deal with my injuries

Called NTSB Hotline at around 10pm Eastern talked with both the expeditor and the Heidi the investigator with general understanding and letting them know I was ok and leaving the hospital
