

Joshua Cawthra
Senior Aviation Accident Investigator
Aviation - Western Pacific Region

Date: August 11, 2022

Subject: WPR22FA298

Contact: Derek Allen - Jefferson County Sheriff

During a conversation with Mr. Allen, he stated that a witness nearby the accident site heard the airplane fly over their house, and shortly after, the sound of it impacting terrain. He added that upon their arrival to the area of the accident, they observed a fog bank that was about 700 ft above ground level, and about 1/4 mile north of the accident site.

Mr. Allen further reported that pilot's wife reported that the pilot had departed Friday Harbor and intended to fly to Olympia, where he was going to rent a vehicle, and drive to West Port, Washington, for a 4-day fishing trip.
