

Eleazar Nepomuceno
Aviation Accident Investigator
WPR

Date: January 18, 2023

Subject: WPR22LA352, Summary of email from FAA Inspector

Contact: Chad Glaza, FAA Inspector

The inspector reported that he didn't see any damage that wasn't caused by the landing/nose over event or the subsequent recovery. He added that the pilot was the new owner of the accident airplane, N5148G, and had neglected to update the registry. The inspector reported that after multiple attempts, the pilot did not return with any correspondence.
