On August 21, 2022, Officer Hayes was dispatched to Woodland Airport. While enroute he contacted the missing pilot's girlfriend and son. The son reported the girlfriend had an argument with the pilot about his alcohol consumption around 1800 PT on August 20. At 1940, the pilot called the girlfriend and said he was upset with life and he was not coming back. Due to the background noise, she believed he called from the airplane and they believed the pilot could have flown the out to the ocean. At about 2147 the girlfriend received a text from the pilot stating "270 to infinity, I love you".
